

Your Mandatory Training is set to change

Portable

Your training records will move between NHS trusts with you.

Consistent

Using a nationally aligned approach will mean training is consistent across all NHS organisations regardless of where you work

Nationally Aligned

Packages are written in accordance with the nationally agreed standard set by the Core Skills Framework

Frequency

The frequency of which you have to complete some subjects is set to reduce to every 3 years

Time Saving

Content has been presented in a simple, clear and streamlined fashion to reduce duplication and assist the user with ease of navigation.
